Something strange has happened.
something very UNUSUAL...
Even more unusual than aliens from Mars
taking over our planet.

Hello FRIEND!!!

The earth's new guest is no one other than a green VIRUS, and a virus we all know is something that no one can see, except with a special microscope which rhymes with telescope.

If you look at his photo
he is a very ugly guy,
with pointy stingers and teeth,
he growls
and is quite a clingy fellow.

The good news is scientists, is hard at work
to create a new medicine that will kick the virus bot.

You know - like the ro-bot!

If you asked me
and nobody ever does,
I do not know why everybody is
so concerned,
this Corona dude is the coolest guy!

Why, you ask?
Guess, guess

...

the little green dude closed
SCHOOL!!

But

Then something even more terrible
happened,
we were not allowed to get pizza,
three-piece chicken,
an ice cream swirl,
go to the movies,
or even the zoo.
I wanted to cry and stomp my feet!
Then something even worse
happened,
My mother became my teacher,
and instead of lunch break,
now I have CHORES!

O chicken leg, O vegetable soup My mommy takes being the teacher WAY to serious, she screams so hard that our ears sizzle,
and the parrot whizzles!

Even our dad says so,
he tried lying down to watch a movie,
and then mom started to nag and nag and nag some more,

now

dad pulls a weed here,
and digs a hole there,
and my mom is so glad that he is working,
she serves him coffee for his pleasure.

I even called grandma,
she stays in another province,
and we may not come to visit, maybe she had a plan with mom.
Mom is her child after-all!

Instead of plans,
Grandma complains about Grandpa,
who cannot stop growling,
and grunting,
it is driving her insane.

Yesterday we got the best news.

School is going to start soon!
Wow, what a relief!

The teacher sends the following letter,

Next page to read:

1. Every child at school needs a cloth mask!
2. If you cough or even greet, use your ELBOW!!
3. Stay 1.5 meters away from your friends.
4. A teacher will take your fever.
5. Your hands, your suitcase, and your shoes will be sanitized.
6. If you go to bathroom WASH your hands with SOAP for TWENTY counts. Can you count to 20?
7. Complete a questionnaire. Do you feel sick? Are you experiencing shortness of breath? Do you have a sore throat? Were you close to anybody with a corona in the last 14 days?

All the rules make my head confused.

I am so scared I will forget them but I am glad my teacher is there, and she never gets mad at me like mommy!

The best of all
with my mask on,
I can sneak a sweet into my
mouth,
and I don't have to swallow a yawn away
because nobody can see me!

Now you also know how to keep safe.

Remember eating healthy, exercising regularly, and keeping your mask on, coughing, and greeting with your elbow.

If you are still unsure ask your TEACHER or you MUM.
